26.1 Introduction

SMS receiver is a service responsible for command execution that were received via text message. The service is available on WCC Lite with modem. To use this service a working SIM card is also required. This chapter will describe command types, configuration for WCC Lite as well as an example of said configuration.